Upcoming Events

Important note about the official calendar below. After some discussion at a recent meeting, it is the opinion of the group that liability insurance is more likely to cover events sanctioned by the WVRA. It is our opinion that to be sanctioned the event should at the minimum be listed on this calendar. Addendum, January 2022. I discussed this issue with the insurance expert of the USV and he agrees that this is a gray area. There is some question whether the liability insurance would cover WVRA members only at sanctioned WVRA events or all events. He further agreed that publishing events in the newsletter may help to make them "official."

Time for Election of Officers for 2024

Members who would like to stand for election as an Association officer in 2024 are asked to contact me (ccritch608@yahoo.com) or any other executive board member by December 1.

Additionally, if any current officer does NOT want to stand for re-election, please let me or another officer know of your desire to not run.

At some point we will have to conduct the annual meeting to elect officers and discuss the future of the WVRA.

A list of current officers can be found near the end of this newsletter.

Insurance

The new limited liability insurance policy went into effect on April 23, 2023. If you need a copy of the insurance certificate, please contact Secretary/Treasurer Rick Byrd. Only current 2023 members are covered. Additionally, you must abide by the by-laws of the WVRA to qualify.

Upcoming Events

For the complete list, see above. The following is any additional information submitted to the editor for the events listed above.

Clarksburg History Museum

Pam and Art Dodds, Keith Kopshina and yours truly, have been participating as reenactors in the Clarksburg History Museum's Civil War tours this summer and fall. Keith did double duty recently filling in as Senator John Carlile after giving his presentation as a Union musician at the trenches on Lowndes Hill.

The tours will resume in March. Anyone interested in participating can contact the Dodds for civilian impressions and can contact me or Keith for military impressions.

For Sale

From Bryan Cokeley

With regret, I am resigned to getting out of the hobby. 😞
I just don't seem to have the impetus to get to events with Hampton having left the state. He was in Texas; he now lives in Richmond. (Apparently, he took to heart those calls of "On to Richmond!") He turns 30 in May. He was 10 when we went to our first School of the Soldier. The passage of time. Maybe we all added 5 years this past year.
It seems wasteful for me to sit on all of this reenactment gear. I will keep my musket. I can make some young person a great deal on everything else – a whole kit to get started in the hobby. If you know of someone interested, please let me know.

Miss everyone! Best,
Bryan (Cokeley formerly of the 1st West Virginia)

New Civil War History of Harrison County
*A Civil War History Of Harrison County, West Virginia
1961-65; Harrison County, Virginia in the Civil War
1856-65. By Pete Taylor*

This new book focuses on the years just prior to and during the war between the states. Despite the rich history of the region, no book had ever been written solely focusing on this area for that time period. Therefore, I undertook the task of researching and creating this account. As a resident of Harrison County, I had access to local historians and resources.

The book is available through Amazon for $28.00. The manuscript has been donated to the Harrison County Historical Society and all proceeds go to support that organization.

They Said It (or didn't)

Quotes, misquotes and fabrications attributed to the famous, nearly famous, not famous and infamous.

"Don't believe everything you read on the Internet just because there's a photo with, a quote next to it."

- Abraham Lincoln, February 30, 1866
Google shareholders meeting

"Without slavery, the problems between the sections could probably have been worked out by the ordinary give-and-take of politics; with slavery, they became insoluble. So, in 1861 the North and the South went to war, destroying one America and beginning the building of another which is not even yet complete."

ATTENTION - Please do not send any correspondence to the former PO Box in Buckhannon. Membership information can be sent to me. Remember you must be a member of record to qualify for membership benefits. To be covered under the liability insurance policy purchased by the WVRA, you must be a member. Karl Mulac is the administrator of the WVRA-TASAS page. I continue to use the WVRA-TASAS page to post announcements as it has been the page getting the most use.

As newsletter editor, I encourage submissions from members or readers, that are related to American history. I retain the right as editor to make a final decision on the content of this publication. Abusive or political submissions will not be published.

Editor's Corner

The Editor's chance to speak

IT IS TIME to elect WVRA officers for the coming year (2024). Please consider running. Let me or another officer (see list above) if you are interested.

ANY MEMBER who wants to contribute to the Trans-Allegheny Dispatch is encouraged to do so. I get very few items from members. Anyone who has an opposite point of view to mine, I encourage them to respond. I certainly have expressed some opinions that others might want to rebut. So, I am relying on those active at events for event reviews.

ADDRESS – The WVRA has a new official address. The new address is WVRA, PO Box 227, Beverly, WV, 26253. However, any correspondence about dues, membership, newsletter, etc., should be sent to me. We will continue to check the old Buckhannon PO Box until it expires later this year. If any mail comes to that PO Box, the Beverly Heritage folks will contact me.

IF YOU WANT TO KNOW who is a member of the WVRA and who is not, please ask Rick Byrd or myself. I see folks claiming membership, when in fact they are not members. I usually publish the membership list in the newsletter for a few months for all to see. But some members are uncomfortable with the list being published.
